

RECENT REVIEWS

"a truly memorable performance."

"an orchestra more than willing to take risks in the interests of fire and commitment."

"No wonder the applause was thunderous."

"The audience reaction was immediate and sustained, foot-stamping included. Again these fine players had given a cornerstone performance of a cornerstone work."

David Smart

SCARBOROUGH SPA COMPLEX

The Scarborough Symphony Orchestra is excited to embark on a new association with the Spa Complex. The move from Scarborough College was deemed necessary in order to provide the additional space required for our growing audiences and more professional facilities for our patrons.

Scarborough Spa Complex is located in Scarborough's picturesque South Bay and is one of the most prestigious venues for conferences, exhibitions, entertainment and events on the Yorkshire Coast. The venue is easy to find and is signposted from all directions. The address is: Scarborough Spa Complex, South Bay, Scarborough, North Yorkshire YO11 2HD.

PARKING

There is limited parking outside the venue (1) and along the approach road, but there is also an underground car park a short walk away (2) - sometimes closed in winter. Free parking is available above the Spa along the Esplanade (3) and adjoining streets. You can then either walk to the Spa down a steep path or, if you are feeling less energetic, use the cliff lift, which should be running on every concert day.

Disabled visitors should telephone the Spa in advance to arrange on-site parking: 01723 376774.

TICKETS:

Individual ticket prices:

Full price £7

Concessions: £6

SCARBOROUGH SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Patron Lady Ayckbourn
Conductor Shaun Matthew

58th Concert Season 2007/2008

A few words from the conductor...

A very warm welcome to the exciting new musical journey which is the Scarborough Symphony Orchestra's 58th Season! I had such a wonderful welcome from you all when I took over from Geoffrey Emerson two seasons ago, and have had a consistently warm response ever since, so it gives me great pleasure to take the orchestra forward for another year.

We are excited to be welcoming some world-class soloists to Scarborough, notably the trumpeter Mark Bennett and the trombonist Robert Holliday. Liz Rossi comes to us from the Hallé Orchestra, and Miranda Sinani is a huge young talent from Albania. Frank Hardy will help us finish the season in style with Shostakovich's Piano Concerto No.2 as part of a rip-roaring finale of music from the movies.

With something for everyone and every mood I hope you that you will all enjoy this new season as much as I shall!

Shaun Matthew

LITERARY INSPIRATIONS

Saturday 3rd NOVEMBER, 2007 ~ 7.30pm

Spa Grand Hall, South Bay, Scarborough

Liz Rossi violin

Academic Festival overture	BRAHMS
Violin Concerto in E minor	MENDELSSOHN
Symphony No.5	SHOSTAKOVICH

This Brahms overture, full of genial high spirits and using jolly German student songs, is scored for the largest orchestra Brahms ever wrote for.

We welcome Liz Rossi from the Hallé Orchestra to perform Mendelssohn's ever-fresh E minor Violin Concerto. The virtuoso passages provide ample opportunity for a talented player to display technique, whilst the lyricism of the piece will reveal the performer's deeper interpretative talents. Dmitri Shostakovich's Symphony No.5 in D minor is one of his most popular works. Supposedly written as a response to criticism of his Symphony No.4 and the opera Lady Macbeth of Mtsensk, it is said to be one of his most enigmatic works.

LET VOICES SING TO THE HEAVENS

SUNDAY 16th DECEMBER, 2007 ~ 7.30pm

Spa Grand Hall, South Bay, Scarborough

Miranda Sinani soprano

Scarborough Choral Society & The Staxton Singers

Te Deum	HAYDN
Dance of the Blessed Spirits	GLUCK
Lieder eines fahrenden Gesellen	MAHLER
Variations on a Christmas Carol	BRITTEN
The Tender Land Suite	COPLAND
Christmas Carols	arr. EMERSON

For our Christmas concert we welcome the Scarborough Choral Society and the Staxton Singers. They join us for Haydn's rousing Te Deum, some carols and Copland's suite from his opera, The Tender Land.

We are delighted to welcome Miranda Sinani, the Frederick Cox and Kathleen Ferrier prize-winner, to sing Mahler's Lieder eines fahrenden Gesellen. To maintain the balance between serious and jovial, Britten's witty Men of Goodwill and Gluck's Dance of the Blessed Spirits will complete the concert.

MASTERS OF STRUCTURE

Sponsored by
Broadland Properties Ltd.

Saturday 1st MARCH, 2008 ~ 7.30pm

Spa Grand Hall, South Bay, Scarborough

Robert Holliday trombone

Symphony No.8 ' Unfinished '	SCHUBERT
Concerto for Trombone	GRONDAHL
Symphony No.5	SIBELIUS

Schubert's 'Unfinished' Symphony has held a fascination for the public ever since its belated premiere in 1865. The work is full of despair, longing and a sense of foreboding. We welcome the trombonist Robert Holliday from the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra. He will perform Grondahl's concerto, a classic of the trombone repertoire; it promises to be a performance not to be missed. Finishing the concert is Sibelius's evergreen Symphony No.5, full of the sounds of his native Finland.

MEMORIES OF SPRING

Saturday 17th MAY, 2008 ~ 7.30pm

Spa Grand Hall, South Bay, Scarborough

Mark Bennett trumpet

Siegfried Idyll	WAGNER
Concerto in modo antico	PANUFNIK
Symphony No.1 ' Spring '	SCHUMANN

Wagner's ever-popular Siegfried Idyll opens our 'Memories of Spring' concert. It was written as a love poem and as a thanksgiving to his wife, Cosima, for the birth of their son, Siegfried. It was first performed on the stairs of the Wagner household on Christmas morning, Cosima's 33rd birthday. The renowned trumpeter, Mark Bennett, joins us for Panufnik's Concerto in modo antico. A little-known work, it was adapted from a film score written a few years earlier. Based mainly on old Polish tunes, it is charming in its simplicity.

Schumann's uplifting Spring symphony closes this concert. It was written in the depths of winter and was inspired by poetry. The whole work exhales the fresh, crisp, exhilarating and yet balmy, breath of springtime. It is full of love and merriment, and perfectly titled.

MOMENTS FROM THE BIG SCREEN

Sponsored by
Boyes Stores

Saturday 19th JULY, 2008 ~ 7.30pm

Spa Grand Hall, South Bay, Scarborough

Frank Hardy piano

Piano Concerto No.2 in F	SHOSTAKOVICH
plus a selection of film music,
including (if possible):

Lord of the Rings, Pirates of the Caribbean, A Bridge Too Far, The Mission, Indiana Jones, Star Wars

This season's last concert is a celebration of music from the silver screen. We hope to include music from many of your favourite blockbusters.

We will also welcome the pianist Frank Hardy to perform Shostakovich's virtuosic Piano Concerto No.2. This concert promises to be a real treat for adults and children alike.
